

Festival of Work 2022 CIPD free learning presentations – Wednesday 15 and Thursday 16 June 2022

Time slot	Title	Description
10:00 – 10:20	CIPD HR inform – the essential companion for busy HR professionals	Online, simple to use and packed with helpful employment law and HR resources. Join us today for a live demo of the platform and see how you can navigate daily hurdles with document templates, HR calculators, salary reviews and 'how-to' checklists.
10:30 – 10:50	Future work trends and how to prepare for them	Take a proactive and strategic approach to proposing new agile ways of working, business models, and processes to adapt to continuous change. Take away key findings from our latest report and consider what it means for you.
11:00 – 11:20	Employee resilience – how to build and maintain it	Managers play a vital role in determining the health, wellbeing and engagement of their team. Learn about the 5 key behaviours managers need, to provide the best work experience for employees and to increase their resilience.
11:30 – 11:50	Tackling vacancies by improving your talent pipeline	Many employers facing skills gaps and high vacancies are taking action to surmount a tightening labour market. Find out what they're doing to build talent pipelines and get the crucial insights you need from CIPD research and campaigns.
12:00 – 12:20	Apprenticeships – the missing piece in your development plan	Get training and recognition at no cost to you or your employer! Join us to find out how to improve organisation capability by incorporating apprenticeships into L&D strategy. Make the most of this underused resource and secure the significant business benefits.
12:30 – 12:50	How CIPD qualifications can support your professional development	Discover how a CIPD qualification can help you develop the knowledge and skills future employers will be looking for. Increase your career prospects and earning potential with flexible learning options to suit you. And find out how to become a CIPD member.
13:00 – 13:20	Virtual classrooms and other learning resource options	Digital learning has skyrocketed over the last 2 years and is a trend expected to continue. How does it compare with face-to-face delivery and how do you make it as effective? Learn how to design successful virtual classrooms and keep up with this progressing trend.
13:30 – 13:50	Introducing the CIPD Learning Hub and Shop	Get a tour of the new CIPD Learning Hub and Shop, with development tools, courses and resources you won't want to miss out on. Find out how to get a discount and tap into expert learning anytime, anywhere.
14:00 – 14:20	Keeping up the pace on race inclusion	Line managers are key in tackling discrimination at work and embedding anti-racism strategy. Discover what you can do to challenge behaviour and keep the inclusion drum beat banging, no matter your organisation size.
14:30 – 14:50	Why wouldn't you? Supporting older people in work	There are one million 'missing' older workers in the UK today; one million people who would like to work but aren't currently. Find out what you can do to access this ready workforce and counter your skills and labour shortages.
15:00 – 15:20	Take action, make change. Good work starts with you!	Find out how you can use your professional skills and knowledge to support your community, and raise your profile through volunteering. Provide future talent with insights and access to fulfilling work. Learn how people professionals are taking action to drive social change.